

1000 Miglia Award 2024

The A.R.I. radio club of Brescia, the only one authorized by 1000 Miglia s.r.l. to use the brand, in collaboration with the A.R.I. radio clubs of Rome, Viareggio-Versilia, and all the OMs from the provinces of Brescia, Rome, Lucca, Turin, and Bologna, issue an Award to celebrate the 42nd reenactment of the prestigious car race and the 97th anniversary of the first 1000 Miglia held in 1927.

As usual, this year, the "race" will take place on the Brescia-Rome-Brescia route from 11 to 15 June 2024.

Cars that participated in the editions of the classic 1000 Miglia, "the most beautiful car race in the world," between 1927 and 1957 will also take part in the competition.

To achieve the Award, OMs and SWLs must work/listen to the activator stations located in the provinces of Brescia, Rome, Lucca, Turin, and Bologna from 1 to 16 June until they reach the following scores:

- 25 points for Italian Stations
- 15 points for European Stations
- 8 points for Extra-European Stations

During the period, the Jolly Stations will be active:

- IQ2CF (A.R.I. Brescia radio club)
- IQ0RM (A.R.I. Rome radio club)
- IQ5VR (A.R.I. Viareggio radio club)
- II2MM Super Jolly Station

Score:

- 1 point for each QSO with OMs from the provinces of Brescia, Rome, Lucca, Turin, and Bologna
- 3 points for each QSO with Jolly stations
- 5 points for each QSO with the Super Jolly station

Bands: all HF, VHF, and UHF bands

Modes: CW, SSB, RTTY

The same station can be worked once a day per mode and per band.

Log: There is no need to send the log as the award will be automatically made available by the HamAward cloud platform starting from 17/06/2024.

At the end of the event, the rankings will be published on the Brescia radio club website "www.aribrescia.it" divided as follows:

- Hunter Stations (applicants) divided into Italy, Europe, and Extra-Europe, which will have scored the highest points among those applying for the Award
- Activator Stations

The top-ranked in each category will receive a special recognition.
